This challenge is dedicated to the growing community of home brewers. The underlying premise is to show the versatility of Rhubarb and have fun with a craft that is timeless.

Note: the net proceeds from this event will be dedicated to the “Dream to Skate” project.

Part 1—Here are the details:

1. Your entry must be a “Rhubarb Beer”
2. There is no entry fee.
3. Any amateur home brewer can enter.
4. All entries must be brewed at home, NOT in a commercial establishment.
5. You must turn in your registration application provided by The Homebrew Rhubarb Challenge Authority (HRCA) prior to June 14, 2014.
6. Participants may enter up to two different Rhubarb home brews each.
7. You must supply the HRCA, at the HRCA judging tent, three 12 oz. or two 22/25 oz. bottles of your Rhubarb homebrew (judging samples) on June 14, 2014 no later than 11 am.
8. Each entry to be judged must include a general summary of the homebrew recipe.
9. You must be able to supply the equivalent of two (2) cases (12 oz.) or one (1) case of 22/25 oz. of Rhubarb homebrew (per entry) at the (HRCA) judging tent on Saturday, June 14th at the same time of your registration verification. These additional beers will be sold as samples to the public and the net proceeds donated.

Note: You will receive “bottle identification tags” at the time you deliver your Judging Samples to the HRCA judging tent. These must be securely attached to your submitted bottles with either tape or rubber bands (supplied by the HRCA). Entries without these tags securely attached will NOT be judged.

You must be able to supply the equivalent of two (2) cases, 12 oz. or one (1) case of 22/25 oz. of Rhubarb homebrew (per entry) at the HRCA judging area on Saturday June 14, 2014 at the same time of your registration verification.

Part II—How to identify your beer’s

a. Fill out the bottle identification tag that will be provided by the HRCA at the time you present your required bottles at the HRCA Judging Tent.

b. Rubber band or tape (provided by the HRCA) a bottle identification tag to each of the bottles to be judged per entry.

c. Which category to I enter? You will choose a category of Lager, Ale or IPA.

“Homebrew Rhubarb Challenge”

Q & A

a. Homebrew means home or home setting. Your homebrew may not be brewed at a place that brews beverages commercially.

b. You must list the name of any individuals who helped brew this beer “co-brewer” on your entry form. Being listed as a co-brewer does NOT exclude someone from entering their own homebrew.

c. You may not enter more than two entries for this competition.

d. What kind of bottles are required? Bottles may be between 12 oz. and 25 oz. in volume, brown or green glass.

e. Remove any labels on the bottles.

f. Mark out any lettering or graphics on the caps using a black marking pen.

g. Winners will be announced after the judging, during the Rhubarb Festival.

Awards:

Best of Show—Trophy
First Place: Red Bottle Capper from The Brew Shop
Second Place: Case of 22 oz. Bottles from The Brew Shop
Third Place: Bag of Bottle Caps from The Brew Shop

1st, 2nd, 3rd place ribbons will be awarded

Following the Official judging a “Rhubarb Beer Tasting Extravaganza” will be held in the area of the HRCA Judging Tent.

You may email your entry form to lsgarden@uci.net or fax to 541-536-8634 or go to our website www.lsgardens.com.
